JOINING FORCES TO FIND ANSWERS

These experts come together under the International Research Chairs Initiative, a cutting-edge project sponsored by Canada's International Development Research Centre and by the Canada Research Chairs Program.

The project pairs top research talent from universities in Canada with their counterparts in developing countries. These specialists share their advanced skills and knowledge to confront issues of common concern.

KNOWLEDGE WORKS

The result of this joint effort: world-class discoveries and healthier, wealthier, fairer societies — all thanks to Canadian leadership.

This team is a winner.
